Payment Plan Understanding – Should a student withdraw from the Paramedic Program any time after the first day of class (orientation), the full amount of tuition has been earned by RREMSA. The student is still legally responsible to pay any/all outstanding balances even though they will not be attending class. Students who choose to stop coming to class, withdraw, or are removed for academic reasons are still responsible for the agreed to amount.

*Discounts

If a student received a discount on their tuition, this discount will be deducted after all payments have been made. If a payment plan is in place, the discount will be removed AFTER all payments have been made.

Anatomy & Physiology Completion

I understand that I must have A & P successfully completed no later than April 20, 2022.

I understand that if I fail A & P or fail to complete A & P, I will be removed from the Paramedic Program and I will NOT be eligible for a refund or transfer into another program. I understand that I will lose my tuition, deposit, and non-refundable money.

REFUNDS & FEES

Students who pay with credit cards, will be required to pay associated fees during the checkout process. Those fees are paid directly to the credit card company and the student must pay attention to those fees at the time of the transaction. Fees are clearly outlined on the website at the time of payment.

Students that request a refund will be subject to a 5% refund fee, which will be deducted at the time of the refund. The refund fee applies to all refunds, including services (Paramedic course), clothing, and products. Please be sure you have ordered the correct item/size. No exceptions.
